

ST. FRANCIS XAVIER LAY MISSIONARY SOCIETY

"Serving God in Asia with Faith & Love"

Witnessing to Christ and Engaging Christians to Go and Set the World on Fire

Tricia Bølle is the founder of the St. Francis Xavier Lay Missionary Society, dedicated to forming lay Catholics to preach the Gospel in Asia through a diverse ministry of evangelization, faith formation, and social justice. Our ministry team has developed and led numerous retreats, prayer groups, faith studies, lectures, pastoral counseling, and workshops on all matters of the faith and life, especially for young adults. We focus on a variety of topics related to faith, mission, evangelization, spiritual growth based on Church teaching, the lay vocation, and living out our calling in Christ.

Tricia has served as a Catholic lay missionary in Asia and beyond for the past 15 years. She has been blessed to speak all over the world to students, young adults, priests, and religious, anywhere from famous cathedrals and universities to quiet gatherings in non-descript rural churches and homes. She co-founded the Catholic graduate fellowship at Stanford University where she graduated, and has developed, trained, and consulted for numerous university and young adult ministries in Asia, Europe, and North America. Though she works most closely with the Dominicans, she draws her spirituality for her life with Christ and the mission from numerous Catholic religious traditions and has worked with many religious congregations over the years, including the Jesuits, Franciscans, Missionaries of Charity, Claretians, Maryknolls, and others. She has received the blessing of numerous bishops throughout the world to preach, teach, and serve in their dioceses, and has spoken at the Angelicum and Gregorian Pontifical Universities, as well as Casa Santa Maria in Rome.
